Rob Stephenson
Christmas 2013

HOLIDAY GREETINGS from Jaffrey,
I travelled to Ireland, Scotland, England and Spain in October-November; otherwise, pretty much stayed put in Jaffrey. ¶ In June went to Hanover for my 50th Dartmouth reunion. ¶ Lots of the usual civic activities:
Village Improvement Society, Meetinghouse
and Cemetery Committees, Trustee of Trust Funds, et al. Appointed by the Governor to the NH State Historical Resources Council.
All this keeps me out of mischief. ¶ My Antarctic involvement continues: now preparing for publication a rare expedition newsletter from Captain Scott's era.

"My feelings about her continue to evolve."

"Guess who?"

"Oh God, yes! I've been a bad cow! Such a bad, naughty cow! Again! Yes!"

"There's gotta be an easier way to get candy from a baby."

"We made a bit of a mess in Aisle 2."

"Meet Carla, honey—our new roommate."

"I'm sorry. The beef Wellington has to be ordered twenty-four hours in advance."

"Leave it on."
