Hi Todd,

I finally got a copy of the invoice from Brad Davis for progress payment #2 ($52,470). Do you know where that is at the moment? Last time I checked Elisa did not have it.

Also, I only have one invoice from Stebbins for painting the south facade: $2,850. Have you received any other invoices from them. If so, don't pay a final one yet as they need to do some additional painting (rails, hinges and also need to unstick all the windows which are presently frozen). I've been calling them and leaving messages but they don't respond. And if you have received additional invoices, please e-mail them to me.

Once the interior of the "Yellow" room has been painted—sometime this week—I'll need some DPW help to relocate some of the stuff on the balcony back into the Yellow room and the room above. At some point I'd like to see some simple shelving built for the Yellow room to store all the architectural fragments. Would Gary be available to do that?

Regards,

Rob
