Rob,

I will be out of town on Friday. Todd is handling the bid opening. I plan to have this on the agenda for Monday's Select Board meeting to make a contractor selection for the project. Todd will put the information together and we will review on Monday to make a recommendation to the Select Board. Would you like to be part of that process? We are planning to meet in my office at 2pm on Monday and would like to have you join us. If that time does not work, do you have another time that would work on Monday? -Jon
